Investigation into the conditions and circumstances resulting in the tragic death of Dag Hammarskjöld and of the members of the party accompanying him

Investigation into the conditions and circumstances resulting in the tragic death of Dag Hammarskjöld and of the members of the party accompanying him

Note by the Secretary-General

With reference to paragraphs 3 and 4 of my note of 21 March 2014 (A/68/800), I have the further duty to inform you that on 28 March 2014 I received a subsequent submission from the Commission of Jurists on the Inquiry into the Death of Dag Hammarskjöld.

In that submission, the Hammarskjöld Commissioners state that "[t]he Hammarskjöld Commission is now functus officio. Any further action will be a matter for the United Nations, but the former Commissioners consider themselves under an obligation to pass on to the United Nations any new and possibly relevant material which may now reach them". They have accordingly made available to the Secretariat recently declassified material which had reached the Hammarskjöld Commissioners in February 2014 from a Member State.

The Secretariat will consolidate this additional new material, and any further new material it receives from the Hammarskjöld Commissioners, with the information received from the Hammarskjöld Commission in its earlier submissions mentioned in paragraph 3 of my above-mentioned note.
